THE NECESSITIES

We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience and live without heart;
We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man cannot live without clothes.

The poet might have added that civilized man cannot live without clothes, either. We are here in recognition of that fact. We make it our business to supply mankind with clothes. From the little fellow with his first knee trousers to the aged veteran in life's battle, we have clothes for all.

The WHEN keeps right up with this procession the year round. In winter it presents you with thick clothes, in summer with thin ones. Just now we remark that we have the most of our fall and winter goods in. And if you are wise you will come to the When, where you have by far a much larger line of goods to select from and at one profit lower than elsewhere. One price to all.

ALL THE NEWS.

Telegraphed from Various Parts of the World—And Also from Halifax.

Democratic Crookedness in Indiana—High Price for Straws—Ship from Rotterdam, Loaded with Empty Barrels, Goes Down.

By the Associated Press.

HALIFAX, Aug. 27.—The pleasure-steamer Mohican, Captain Simpson, arrived here at 12 o'clock last night. At noon yesterday the Mohican fell in with the ship Lillian, of St. John, N. B., Captain Whitney, which had been rendered a complete wreck during the previous day's storm. The crew of fifteen besides the captain, and the wife and two children of the captain, were clinging to the helplessness and, signalled to the Mohican. A fierce wind was blowing and a high sea was running, but a boat was launched from the steamer, and after five hours' perilous work, the wrecked crew were rescued. The Lillian was abandoned about 300 miles east of Halifax. She was from Rotterdam, bound to New York, with a cargo of empty oil casks.

BECKER'S BOSOM FRIEND.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker Comes to This County to Pronounce a Eulogy on Mr. Becker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, of the City Temple, London, who for years was a bosom friend of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and entertained that gentleman and his wife when they visited Europe last summer, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Umbria. He was driven from the dock to the Everett house, where he was met by Mr. Becker.

Dr. Parker denied that he had come over here in response to a call to fill the pulpit of Plymouth church, rendered vacant by Mr. Beecher's death. He said: "I was under contract before Mr. Beecher's death to come over on this fall on a lecture tour. I am here to deliver a series of lectures on the subject of 'The Church of the Future.'"

Dr. Parker further said: "During the past few months my church has been thoroughly Americanized by the invasion of visitors from this country. All who have called on me have been enthusiastic in their admiration of Mr. Beecher's memory."

General Crook Will Visit in Person the Hostile Indian Camp.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—A special from Omaha says: General Crook, upon leaving for the scene of the Ute Indian outbreak, said: "We are going Indian hunting on our own account. I have been instructed by the president to return old Colorado to its reservation, and that is my errand. I shall have no troops with me. I shall visit the Indians in person. I have no doubt as to my ability to convince him that the best place for him is home. I shall hold a personal consultation with him, and shall probably grant some concessions which should have been allowed long ago. I shall proceed direct to Meeker and from there will go on horseback to him in the mountains. Guides will be taken, and the portion of the way. My visit will be a brief one."

More Democratic Crookedness.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—The News' Indianapolis, Ind., special, says: The latest discovery of crookedness in the democratic management of state affairs is a voucher found on file in the state auditor's office, showing that in last May the trustees of the insane hospital paid $2.72 a gallon for 272 gallons of strawberries, when the market price was only 32 cents. A democratic farmer was given the contract. Numerous charges of corruption on the hospital's contract system have been made against the trustees by the state civil service association.

Three Men Drowned.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 29.—A special from Duluth, Minn., to the Tribune, says: Four Finlanders were captured in a small boat on the Wisconsin shore near Conners point at 3 p. m. yesterday, drowning three of them, Peter Johnson, aged 20; Charles Morking, 37; and John Hogan, 22; all single and laborers. One body has been recovered.

The Comet Seen.

PHILADELPHIA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Professor Brooks, of the Red-house observatory, yesterday morning obtained a good view of the new comet recently discovered by him in the eastern heavens. The comet is now in constellation Cancer, one degree east of the star Iota. It is moving less than one degree daily toward the sun, and is becoming brighter.

Child Murdered.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Times special from Monroeville, Ind., says: The child so brutally abused by its step-father, John Waterside, at Sunbury, near here, died yesterday from the effects of the cruel treatment it had received, and for which Waterside is now in jail and his wife will be as soon as the officers can find her.

Work of Burglars.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 29.—Burglars rifled the store of Lorenz & Ek, jewelers, Saturday night and secured diamonds and watches valued at $1,200. When Mr. Ek awoke yesterday morning he found that burglars had entered his residence and stole his clothes with keys to the store.

Charged With Arson.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 29.—Eight members of the Knickerbocker club, of Plainfield, were arrested yesterday on a charge of arson. One of them, George Jackson, confessed that he had set fire to a number of places by using kerosene. They will have an examination today.

Collied With a Freight.

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—A passenger train on the West Shore railroad collided with a freight train near Fort Byron yesterday. The passenger train was killed and Engineer Miller of the passenger train and Ludwig of the freight train were injured.

Loss, $20,000.

LONG ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 29.—A block of three-story frame buildings on Vernon avenue, owned by John V. Provost, and several sheds, stables, etc., were burned last night. Provost's loss is $20,000.

The Yellow Fever.

KEY WEST, Fla., Aug. 29.—The report of yellow fever cases up to date, according to the report of the board of health, is as follows: New cases, 13 deaths, 60; discharged cured, 171; still sick, 39.

Beats the Record.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Cunarder Umbria yesterday landed 621 first-class cabin passengers, the largest number ever brought over on a trans-Atlantic steamer.

GRACE CHURCH.

The Opening Services Yesterday—A Joyous Occasion for the Church.

Sunday was a joyous occasion for the people of Grace church, being the first Sabbath of its history as an organization. At the morning services, Rev. F. G. Mitchell addressed a good congregation and spoke in an encouraging manner from the words, "He that reapeth receiveth wages."

He spoke of the need of individual effort as well as organized cooperation, the importance of prompt action in securing the good with which the church is blessed, and that such action must be an enterprise as they were engaged in.

At the evening service, the congregation completely filled the house, showing a degree of interest and sympathy in the new enterprise which must have cheered the hearts of those who a few weeks ago looked upon the movement as an unlikely experiment. After the voluntary by the choir, and opening service by Rev. Mitchell and Rev. Dr. Kuntz, the pastor, Rev. F. B. Jackson, read the names of the new members, now totaling thirty-eight. These will be admitted at a future time.

The pastor delivered an excellent ten-minute address from the words, "Thou art the salt of the earth." He spoke of the new church, he spoke briefly of the words "Be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the word of the Lord," and he exhorted his hearers to be as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

The services of the day were concluded by the sacrament of the Lord's supper, a large number participating.

After the benediction there seemed no doubt to leave the place already endeared to many hearts by social memories, and now promising to afford a permanent church home. The congregation lingered to exchange greetings and to take part in the interesting and profitable union love-feast held by the presiding elder, Rev. Frank Mitchell, and participated in by the pastors of Grace Street and St. Paul M. E. churches, and many members from their respective churches.

During the conference year just closing, 142 worshipers have been added to the church, forty have been dismissed by letter and four or five have been removed by death. Doubtless a warm welcome and kind appreciation awaits the pastor when the Cincinnati conference will send to them from his session this week.

IMPRESSIVE RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church—A Large Gathering of the People.

Central M. E. Sunday school resumed its weekly appearance Sunday morning, those of its members who were absent upon the summer vacation having returned, as had also those who had spent the past two Sundays at the Urbana camp ground.

The last missionary collection of the present conference year was taken, amounting to something over $15, which brings up the total for this cause from the Sunday school alone to $30.25, and, in connection with the collections from the congregation, places Central M. E. church beyond the million dollar line for missions.

At the morning service, the pastor, Dr. Runtz, read a list of thirty-eight names of probationers who had been recommended by the leaders and official board for admission into full membership, twenty-six of whom responded by accepting the same. These will be admitted at a future time.

The pastor delivered an excellent ten-minute address from the words, "Thou art the salt of the earth." He spoke of the new church, he spoke briefly of the words "Be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the word of the Lord," and he exhorted his hearers to be as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

The services of the day were concluded by the sacrament of the Lord's supper, a large number participating.
